Three Important Books

A Book About Our Wonderful Bodies.

Marvels of Our Bodily Dwelling

BY MRS. MARY WOOD-ALLEN, M.D.
Author of "What a Young Girl Ought to Know," etc.

Introduction by Sylvanus Stall, D.D.

328 Pages. $1.20 Net.

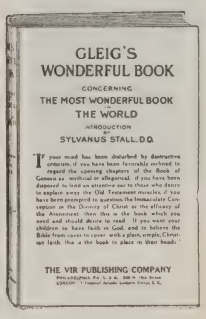
In the form of an allegory—comparing each part of the human body to its counterpart in a dwelling, the author has succeeded in making this human study as interesting as a Sherlock Holmes detective story. She had laid under contribution the best scientific authorities and this book will be found abreast of the Science of today.

Gleig's Wonderful Book Concerning the Most Wonderful Book in the World

BY REV. GEORGE ROBERT GLEIG, M.A.

With Introduction by Sylvanus Stall, D.D.

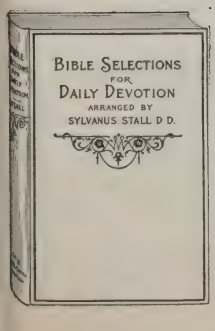
711 Pages. $1.80 Net.



This book was written upon the theory that the Bible is all true or it is not true at all. It is not a commentary or an exposition of any one portion of the Bible. It presents the Bible as a whole, and in such a manner as to unify and centralize the 66 books, giving the reader that unity and comprehensiveness of view which the Bible student needs in order to make effective his reading and study of the Bible itself, and it does two very important things: First, it creates an atmosphere in which doubt and unbelief cannot live; Secondly, at the end of each chapter it answers the questions concerning the Bible suggested by Satan to the mind of every intelligent Bible reader.

Bible Selections for Daily Devotion

Selected and Arranged by SYLVANUS STALL, D.D.



Cloth. 686 Pages. $1.20 Net.

This book brings to family worship 365 passages best suited in character and length to such service. It is intended to relieve the father or mother of perplexity and apprehension concerning the passages to be read, and to enable them to bring to the service that mental and spiritual frame of mind indispensable to the conduct of real worship. The selections are excellently suited for use not only in family worship, but also for the chapel services of colleges, universities, and by teachers in the opening services of public schools.

Author of "The Redemption of David Corson," etc.

CLOTH, $1.00 NET.

"It hits the need of the average man and woman and all others that reckon themselves above the average. The whole book is pervaded by strong anecdotes and amusing stories."—The Outlook.

"This is a live book from cover to cover, genial, sparkling, witty, humorous, full to overflowing with the good cheer of Jesus Christ, a book to keep constantly at hand for frequent reading at opportune moments. A means of perpetual blessing to husband, wife and home."

MADISON C. PETERS in The Baptist Commonwealth.

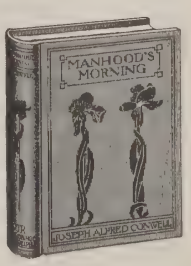
"Like some good people of whom he talks, Dr. Goss has a head that is screwed on right, and a heart in the right place too. He writes for average men and women, with a brave scorn of folly, meanness and selfishness, under whatever form it may masquerade."—New York Christian Advocate.

AN INSPIRING CHARACTER-BUILDING BOOK FOR YOUNG MEN.

Manhood's Morning

BY JOSEPH ALFRED CONWELL

CLOTH, $1.00 NET.



Dr. Conwell, from his medical training, experience in public life, and his love for young men, is particularly fitted to write such a book. He shows what young men are in their work, then points out what they could be and ought to be. Facts are here presented which should arouse our young men to the dangers that threaten them and parents and educators should seek to throw every possible safeguard about those who are to be the founders of homes and the leaders in the moral and political destiny of our nation.

"Every minister who deals with young men and every young man who cares to avoid evil and love righteousness should read the book."

BISHOP J. H. VINCENT,
Chancellor of Chautauqua University.

"We have seen a number of books for young men, but this is the most virile of the lot; it takes a wider survey than most of them, and treats its objects in a more philosophical spirit."—Scottish Congregationalist.

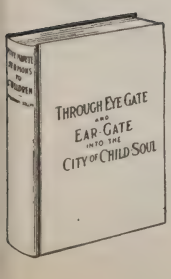
SILK FINISHED CLOTH, GOLD TOP, AND STAMPED IN GOLD ON SIDE AND BACK.
12MO. $1.00 NET.



A book for the nursery, for parents, teachers, and for all interested in the training and education of children along moral and religious lines.

"The author is a genius. There is not a dull line between the covers of this book."—Christian Endeavor World.

"Dr. Stall is an expert in this line of work attempted, and we may add achieved, in this little book. He addresses little object sermons as bright, pithy and taking as they can be, with a good point to them always."—New York Independent.

"YOUNG HONESTY" — POLITICIAN. Colored frontispiece. 308 pp. Cloth. $1.00.

This volume is a political story, yet its setting is on the great ranch-lands of the West. Every boy will be interested in such a story in these days.

A lively story in which a young ranchman by his quick wit and ready resource helps to win an election for his father as Congressman, and shows how a corrupt political ring in Wyoming, by means of tricky wire-pulling at Washington, had secured valuable water rights, and forbidden the ranchers to use the water. This meant death to many thousands of cattle and ruin to the people. "Young Honesty" accompanies his father to Washington to see the President and explains the situation to him.

William E. Barton

It brings into high relief the earnestness and patriotism of those who, in the destruction of the tea, led in the brilliant and historic protest against the aggressions of the British government.

LIEUTENANT RALPH OSBORN ABOARD A TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYER. Illustrated. 342 pp. Cloth.

$1.25 each

Commander E. L. Beach's stories for boys of the United States have helped immensely to explain the inner workings of an American man-of-war and to inspire patriotism and heroism in the young men of this generation. Mr. Beach writes of real events and true incidents in the Navy, and brings into play all the expert knowledge of the Navy which he has gained through years of experience.

Naval officers are one of the few classes of Americans who actually have interesting adventures now-a-days; consequently the navy appeals to the boy's imagination much as it did in the days of wooden ships. Commander Beach has put into his series of stories about Ralph Osborn some valuable information about the American navy, and much of his own life experience.

THE BALASTER BOYS. A story. Illustrated. Cloth. 294 pp. $1.25.

"The Balaster Boys" is based upon the home life of a professor's family which contains three wide-awake boys and their cousin, an orphan girl, who becomes their adopted sister. The portrayal of their individual characters and of the influence they exerted over one another in their work as well as their play furnishes the theme of a bright and wholesome story that can be read with interest by boys and girls alike.

Ellen Douglas Deland

MALVERN. A neighborhood story. Illustrated. 341 pp. Cloth.

The neighborhood in question is in New Jersey, and furnishes a queer assortment of boys and girls, whose plans and activities form the material for this entertaining story. Miss Deland understands boy and girl nature, and also how to tell a story. A visit to the World's Fair forms a considerable part of the book, recalling pleasantly many features of the Unique White City whose like probably will not be seen again.

They scandalize their dignified aunt by deciding to earn their own living. They are refreshingly honest and natural, and their plans, as conceived and carried out, make an exceptionally fine story.

The author has displayed ability in planning the course of action of her agreeable young people and in working out her plot effectively. Its blending of good sense and entertainment will be appreciated.

Walter P. Eaton

THE BOY SCOUTS OF BERKSHIRE. Colored frontispiece. 313 pp. Cloth.

"The Boy Scouts of Berkshire," by Walter P. Eaton, is a story which will delight Boy Scouts and all boys who would like to join the army of scouts which is doing such wonderful work for boys mentally and physically.

THE BOY SCOUTS IN THE DISMAL SWAMP. Colored frontispiece. 310 pp. Cloth.

Walter P. Eaton, whose boy scout story of Berkshire has already gained a popularity, has taken his little band far from their original camping ground in his new story, "The Boy Scouts in the Dismal Swamp." The Dismal Swamp of today is not what it was fifty years ago or the band of scouts would not have come out as well as they did. While in it, they saw sights enough to verify the name, but much strange beauty of vegetation, much geological development of unfamiliar kind. The adventures with the law and the lawless add spice to the story which keeps up the standard of the other books of the series.

WITH THE FLAG IN PANAMA. A story of the building of the Panama Canal. Illustrated. 356 pp. Cloth. $1.25.
This is a timely story, full of adventure, but still conveying an accurate idea of the work of building the great Panama Canal. Few appreciate what the building of this canal really means, but from the author's own experience he has drawn the facts so as to give a pretty good idea of just what is really going on. Starting at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology on what he believed to be the technical engineering career, the young hero finds himself forced to abandon it and take up the practical side of his profession. His adventures and hardships through which he passed, the success which he met with, all have their places in what will be called one of the best stories for boys.

A COURIER OF EMPIRE. Being a story of Marcus Whitman's ride to save Oregon. Illustrated. 315 pp. Cloth. $1.25.

This is a book for boys pre-eminently and a book that ought to interest people in home mission work. While it is a story of adventure—of adventure of the wildest sort, of fights between white men and Indians, and the discovery of gold and all that—it is far more. It tells one of the heroism of those early missionaries, of the way in which they rode in the face of appalling difficulties, and also it tells us of the noble and successful effort made by Marcus Whitman wherein, by a ride which was regarded by the people of that day as almost superhuman, he saved Oregon to the United States.

THE TEACHING OF CITIZENSHIP. By Edwin H. Hughes. 225 pp. Cloth. $1.25.
For the purpose of guiding an instinct and training a sentiment, Bishop Hughes suggests certain natural and human starting points for the teaching of patriotism and citizenship. Following a discussion, "The need and the method," are nine chapters on the lesson of instinct, of breadth, of cost, of protection, of benefit, of democracy, of liberty, of character and of duty.
Citizenship is an important subject, one which may well be taught in our public schools, discussed from our pulpits, and made the theme for the greatest publicity. He who imbibes the truths taught by Bishop Hughes will become a better American citizen — more appreciative of his rights, privileges and duties.

Twenty-three composite books and single volume collections of selected stories are fully indexed as well as eleven more complete collections of several volumes each, such as Johnson's Little Classics, Ridpath's Library of Universal Literature and Warner's Library of the World's Best Literature. 3. The Service secures enough copies of valuable reports, pamphlets, etc., to loan to cooperators when the publications are out of print.

4. The Service acts as a medium of communication between investigators and reference libraries and endeavors also to collect and furnish to cooperators information upon any subject upon demand.

An illustrated guide to the wild flowers of the western United States from the Canadian Rockies to California and New Mexico, and from the Pacific Coast to western North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas. Full keys. are given, with family and genus descriptions, and these have been made as simple as possible in order that they may be used readily by beginners, especially in high schools and colleges. At the same time the book has been designed to meet the needs of tourists, farmers, botanists and foresters. A special feaure is the full-page illustrations of which there are twenty-two in black and white and twenty-five in color. The colored drawings are the work of Mrs. Clements who is an artist as well as a botanist, and expense has not been spared in preparing the plates for this book. They are as fine as any that have ever been published and alone make the book well worth the price.

Toaster's Handbook of Jokes, Stories and Quotations. xii, 483 pages, D., cloth. $1.25.

This volume is distinct from the ordinary collection of this kind in that jokes and serious quotations have both been brought into one collection, and especially in that they are classified under subject headings corresponding more or less closely to those used in library catalogs. The indexing is so thoroly done as to make it possible for the after-dinner or other public speaker to find illustrative material bearing directly on his special subject, or any division of his discourse. Preceding the quotations is a very readable introduction, an essay on "The Possession of a Sense of Humor".

ELLIS, (WM. T., LL.D.)—"Billy" Sunday: The Man and His Message. Authorized by Mr. Sunday. The only book that explains "Billy" Sunday; as readable as fiction. It not only tells the story of Mr. Sunday's eventful life, and gives a keen analysis of his manner and methods, but it also contains the heart of his message, which has changed the lives of a quarter of a million. It reproduces his picturesque, heart-stirring phrases and sayings, and retains all of the wonderful appeal of his platform utterances. It will give any minister, teacher or other worker new ideas, new inspiration, new energy. For the great body of church members it provides a stimulus and vitality unequaled by anything else in current literature, while to the world at large it carries the same remarkable message with which Mr. Sunday has aroused the conscience of whole communities.

FREEMAN, (R. AUSTIN)—A Silent Witness. The ordinary mystery story seems commonplace when compared with this new novel by Dr. Freeman. The plot is so buttressed by curious scientific facts, in the use of which Dr. Freeman is a past master, that it defies the most astute reader, and instructs while it fixes the interest. It is full of the thrill of perilous adventure, of fiendish conspiracy, and of hazardous attempts to ferret out a resourceful, unscrupulous criminal. How Thorndyke, medico-legal expert, pieces infinitesimal facts together with infinite care, how he bridges the gaps in his network, and triumphantly discovers the undiscoverable, makes him a classical figure among the great detectives of fiction. The love story, running like a silken thread through the mystery and adventure, adds an appealing charm. 8vo. 382 pages. Illustrations by H. Weston Taylor. Cloth.....Net 1.20

LYNCH, (ARTHUR, M. P.)—Ireland: Vital Hour. Here, at length, is a fearless and illuminating book, written with inside knowledge of Irish politics. The author has had an opportunity given to few of possessing essential knowledge of Irish organizations, and he has entered upon the work in that rare spirit of patriotism which seeks the weaknesses and the strength of the materials of which the Irish nation of the future must be built. Some of his criticisms of the existing state of affairs, particularly the influence of the clergy in politics, will produce a deep impression, and perhaps provoke fierce rejoinders; yet the book is both conciliatory and unifying, and the true way of Ireland's concord with England is pointed out. Altogether an original, bold, sincere, and, above all, upbuilding book. Demy 8vo. Cloth, gilt edges.....Net 2.50

		SINCLAIR, (UPTON)—The Cry for Justice. An anthology of the literature of social protest, collected from twenty-five languages, covering a period of five thousand years, with an introduction by Jack London. We believe this is one of the most interesting books ever published. It is an attempt to cover the whole field of the literature of social protest, both in prose and poetry, and from all languages and times. It is a Gospel of the new hope of the race. It is in no way a propaganda, but appeals to the growing sense of social justice in industry, in politics, and in every walk of life. The illustrations repeat in the field of art what has been done in the field of literature. A volume which is unique of its kind, this anthology forms an invaluable work of reference, as well as one of general interest to the great body of serious readers who are concerned with social problems. 800 pages, 6½ x 9 inches. Illustrated. Cloth; gold side and back titles. Net	$2.00
		—Sylvia's Marriage. Upton Sinclair here tells the very human and convincing story of the married life of Sylvia Castleman, a socially-distinguished Southern girl of rare charm, who, against her own inclination, for family reasons married the scion of a great New York family. The story involves a vivid picture of the class system that sacrified Sylvia. Her beauty and the purity of her character make all the more impressive the tumult of indignation and protest with which she contemplates her child's blindness—the consequence of the former misdeeds of her husband. It is as though the author had bound the reader to the stake with threads of silk and chains of gold, before he gently lights the fagots. "Sylvia's Marriage" utterly annihilates the curse of false modesty and reticence in vital sex matters. It is a vital story, and one worth fighting for—a novel that men should read for their preservation, and women for their protection. It may shock some people because it tells the truth, but there is not an immoral line in it. Cloth. 348 pages. .....Net	1.20
		—Sylvia. Appearing at the psychological moment when social questions are at the front, "Sylvia" is the "inside" story of a great society wedding, and reveals the things the public never hears. In its picture of the old, fast-vanishing Southern life, and in the unfolding of the character of a charming girl, the book is surpassing, while in the final, startling scenes, it brings home to the individual reader the horror which is hidden in the phrase, "sowing his wild oats." 413 pages. Cloth.....Net	1.20
		—Damaged Goods. From the great play by Brieux, novelized by Upton Sinclair with Brieux's approval. The one work which all authorities agree chastely and adequately warns the new generation of the terrible penalty of sexual immorality. WIDDEMER, (MARGARET)—The Factories, and Other Lyrics. All lovers of good poetry will be grateful for the publication of this book of collected verse by Margaret Widdemer, and not a few of those who scoff at poetry and poets will find within its pages matter which they can really understand and enjoy. The volume contains the widely-quoted poem of "The Factories," a poignant protest against the dwarfing of all the "little sisters" of industry, and many others before which those who search the arid pages of the magazines for poetry have delighted to pause. In spirit and content the poems range all the way from the gayest of ballads to the solemn-echoing "War March," full of heartbreak and wailing bugles. Miss Widdemer has the poet's insight into many moods and many times and withal the gift of spontaneous and haunting music. 128 pages. 12mo. Cloth; gilt top.....Net 1.00

		TALES FROM SHAKESPEARE. By Charles and Mary Lamb. These famous tales, to the number of twenty, were prepared for the purpose of putting into attractive prose the stories of Shakespeare's plays. Novels from Shakespeare

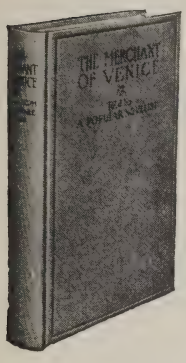
Founded on Shakespeare's Plays and Given Complete in the Form of Fiction



There is undeniably a large class of readers who have avoided Shakespeare because of the dramatic and poetic form of his work, and who are equally unsatisfied by Lamb's "Tales from Shakespeare" because of the inevitable fault to which Lamb confesses in his preface, namely, the restraint laid upon him by the necessity of brevity. To these readers the "Novels from Shakespeare" Series will immediately appeal. In these novels the stories in the great plays are told at length; almost every character keeps his place and every incident is retained, only the dramatic and poetic setting giving place to the devices of the novelist. For those who look upon these old tales of Shakespeare's as worthy of being read for their own charm's sake, these novels offer the best of the world's stories told in prose, yet told as far as possible in Shakespeare's own words.

A BOOK NOVELTY FOR EASTER, CHRISTMAS AND OTHER HOLIDAY SEASONS

This new series comprises a variety of literary, artistic, poetic and useful books. Attractive autograph and greeting card supplied loose with each volume, thus giving all the advantages of the usual season greeting cards, with the added charm of novelty.

Each Holiday season brings with it a demand for something new and novel to take the place of the old-fashioned card which passes from friend to friend and home to home throughout the English-speaking world. A library of these little volumes would be a delightful memento of Holidays gone and past, and a permanent reminder of the friends from whom they came. Printed on an extra quality of paper.

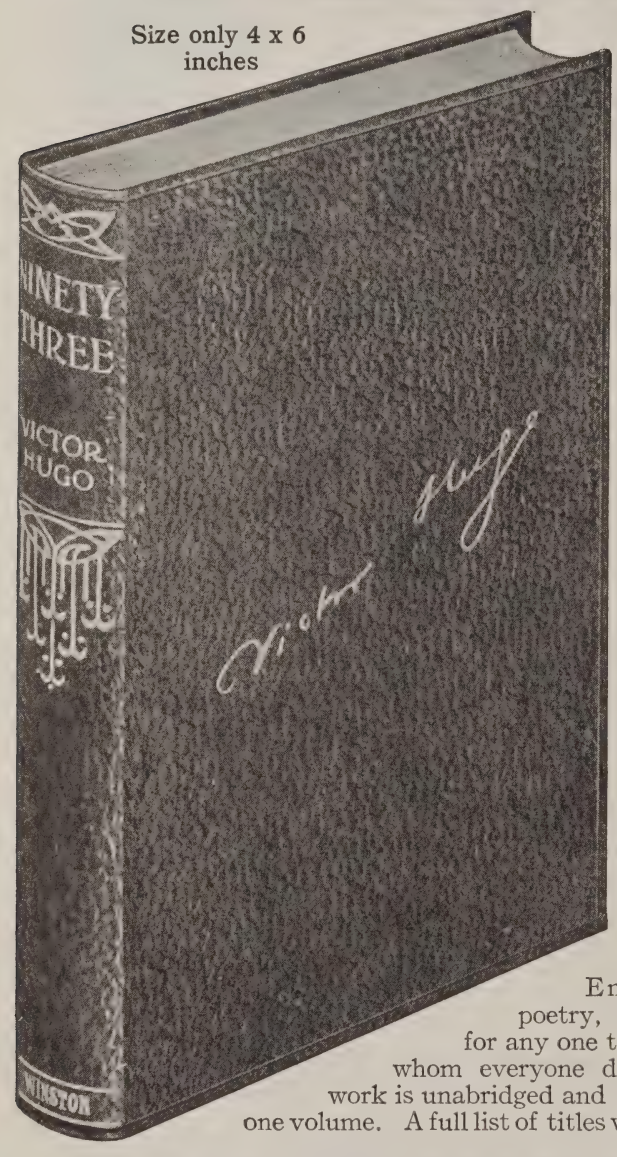
The Sensation of the Publishing World

WINSTON'S ILLUSTRATED HANDY CLASSICS

Bound in Flexible French Morocco at the Price of Cloth Books

Size only 4 x 6 inches



The Best Works of the Best Authors In Handy, Pocket Form

Large, Clear Type Thin, Opaque Paper

Winston's Illustrated Handy Classics supplant every other edition of the world's classics, because, while they are printed in type as large as that found in ordinary volumes, their small, compact size (4 x 6 inches) makes them light, convenient volumes to handle; they occupy only a fraction of the usual shelf-room; and they can readily be carried in the pocket or thrown in a hand-bag for reading at odd moments. Appreciative customers who have first bought a few volumes of the Handy Classics have followed this by replacing large portions of their libraries with these fine little books. The saving in space, the beautiful and uniform appearance of the flexible leather bindings, and the increased pleasure of handling and using these volumes have made the change well worth while.

THE CREAM OF ENGLISH LITERATURE

The titles included in Winston's Illustrated Handy Classics represent the very best work of standard English authors covering fiction, poetry, essays, etc., and make it possible for any one to own and read those authors with whom everyone desires a close acquaintance. Each work is unabridged and with a few exceptions complete in one volume. A full list of titles will be found on the succeeding pages.

YOUR CHANCE TO OWN ONE OR MANY of these DESIRABLE VOLUMES

Is made possible by the use of imported Bible paper in the larger works. This specially thin paper, which is strong and opaque, enables us to include in one of these volumes the same amount of matter that ordinarily requires a much larger compass, without decreasing the size or legibility of the type. It is far superior to India paper for this purpose because it makes the print clearer and blacker, and entirely eliminates the difficulty of turning the leaves of an India paper volume.

Illustrated with 2,400 Half-tone Engravings in Color

An additionally valuable feature of Winston's Illustrated Handy Classics is comprised in the 2,400 monochrome and three-colored plates with which the volumes are fittingly illustrated. These illustrations are not the rehashed, old-fashioned pictures usually found in standard works, but are specially drawn from the original paintings of the foremost artists. They not only illumine the volumes artistically and appropriately, but, what is of equal importance, they interpret the stories with great fidelity.

"Mr. Flintwinch held the candle to her head"
Reproduction of monochrome illustration from Little Dorritt, by Charles Dickens.—Winston's Illustrated Handy Classics.

BOUND IN FLEXIBLE POLISHED LEATHER

Each of the volumes contained in Winston's Illustrated Handy Classics is handsomely bound in Flexible Polished Leather. One first appreciates the beautiful appearance of the rich maroon leather binding, with the author's autograph signature in gold on the side, ornamental gold back stamping and gilt tops; but a feature even more important than this is the strength and durability of the binding, which recommend these volumes for long and constant use. Each volume contains a silk marker.

STOCK YOUR LIBRARY

The many attractive features of Winston's Illustrated Handy Classics make them a welcome addition to any library. Start now to replace the old volumes of standard authors on your bookshelves with the Handy Classics, and select these Classics as you add new titles to your collection from time to time. The improved appearance of your bookcases, and the increased enjoyment derived from your books, will repay you many times.

Fine-Art Classics and Poets' Series

EACH COMPLETE IN ONE VOLUME POCKET SIZE SIZE 4 x 6 INCHES

A MARVELOUS PRODUCTION

These masterpieces of literature were never offered in a format so rich, durable and convenient at anything like the price of this Series. Instead of the heavy, cumberous books usually found with these titles, the present feather-weight volumes measure only 4 x 6 inches, and are printed on thin, opaque Bible paper, so that even "Les Misérables," with its 900 pages of large type, completely bound, is only one inch thick. They represent the highest skill in the art of book-binding, and for intimate use or for gift purposes, cannot be excelled.

In Extra Half Calf, Hand-Bound and Hand-Tooled. Superbly Illustrated.

THE NEW "POETS' REALM" ART CLASSICS WITH COLORED ILLUSTRATIONS

This entirely new series is unique in many respects. Although a much larger book than is usually offered at this price, neither quality or workmanship has been sacrificed in producing a volume of supreme value. Illustrations, end papers and title page are all in color reproductions of art of well known painters. By mounting the frontispiece and title page on brown art paper, an effective effect has been obtained, and the new clear type used makes the text easy and pleasant to the eye.

Bound in velvet leather with overlapping edges, gilt top in slip case. Size $5\frac{5}{8}$ x $3\frac{5}{8}$.

NEW PRACTICAL
"House and Garden" Books
"BEST OF THEIR KIND"

In the preparation of the books described in these pages, the first consideration has been to give practical and dependable information, free from technical terms. They have also been more lavishly illustrated than similar books sold at the same price.

The descriptions of the volumes give an accurate idea of their value and utility, and the high reputation of the editors should in itself be sufficient warrant for the general opinion that they are the "best books of their kind."

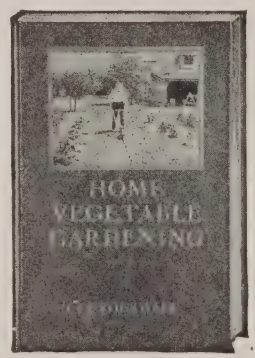
HOME VEGETABLE GARDENING



Size 5¼ x 7¾ inches

—By F. F. Rockwell. A concise book on home vegetable gardening that also includes the growing of berries and fruit. Books of this kind usually treat the subject in an encyclopedic way, telling what vegetables there are and what pests are likely to attack them, and so on, giving far too much information of this kind and not enough for the man who wants to establish a vegetable garden on his suburban lot for family use. Mr. Rockwell, the author of this work, is a practical gardener himself. From long experience he realizes just what the average layman wants to know in order to raise a successful and varied crop. He realizes also that this information must be presented in a logical sequence in order that it may be used to the best advantage.

The book tells: 1. How much space is necessary for a family of a given size; 2. How to divide the space in the proper proportions for the various vegetables and trees; 3. What varieties have been tried and found true; 4. How to plant, cultivate, spray, fertilize, and finally bring the crop to fruition. 12mo. Bound in dark green cloth, decorated with inlaid illustration of an exquisite garden scene done in full color .....Net $1.00

THE GARDEN PRIMER

Size 5¼ x 7¾ inches

—By Grace Tabor. An indispensable book for every garden maker. It is a hand-book of practical gardening information, covering every branch of the subject from preparing the soil to the gathering of the fruit and flowers. A profusion of illustrations, many of them of the most practical sort in explaining the various garden operations, make the text especially clear. The matter is supplemented by carefully prepared planting tables, an invaluable guide to every garden lover, as well as to the beginner in gardening. 12mo. Bound in dark green cloth, tastefully decorated with an inlaid illustration of an exquisite garden scene done in full colors... ....Net 1.00

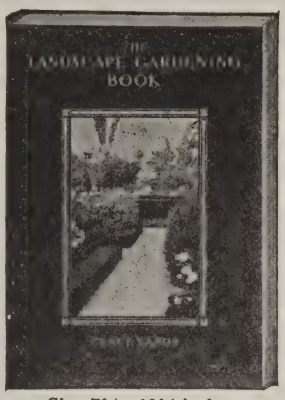
NEW PRACTICAL "HOUSE AND GARDEN" BOOKS—Continued

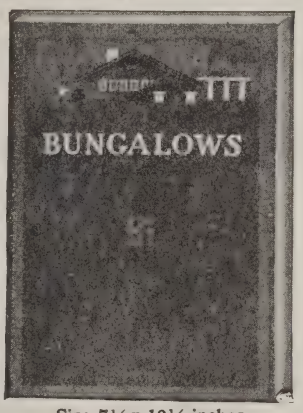
THE LANDSCAPE GARDENING BOOK



Size 7½ x 10¼ inches

—By Grace Tabor. Most garden books deal with the cultural side only—telling what flowers are attractive and how to grow them or how to succeed with the most popular vegetables. The larger subject embracing the whole setting of the country or suburban home, PARTICULARLY ONE OF MODERATE SIZE, has apparently been ignored. THE LANDSCAPE GARDENING BOOK clears up the whole difficult problem of making a a house seem at home in its site. The subjects treated include the utilization of natural resources, the placing of trees, shrubbery, flowers and vines, the selection of varieties, the laying out of entrances, drives, walks, gardens, and buildings. There are also classified lists of plants and cultural directions covering the whole practical side of the subject. An essential book for the man who would have his home—house and grounds—something more than a mere building set on the earth. 180 pages. 118 illustrations. The illustrations are superb half-tone reproductions from representative gardens and homes, together with practical diagrams and planting plans. Bound in dark blue cloth, stamped in gold, with a garden in full color in the design.....Net $2.00

BUNGALOWS



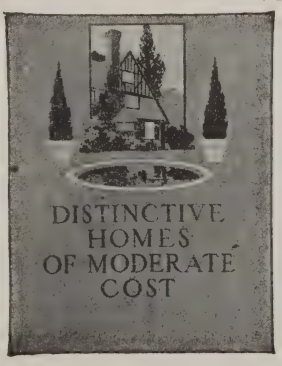
Size 7½ x 10¼ inches

—By Henry H. Saylor. This work discusses the whole subject in a most practical and helpful manner. It treats of types of Bungalows suitable for summer homes, camps, mountain shacks, and various other types.

Careful treatment is given to all departments of the subject, such as planning, building materials, interior finish, schemes for furnishing that are in harmony with the informal and comfortable character of the building, water supply, fire-places, lighting.

Over 200 pages. Lavishly illustrated with plans and photographs of Bungalows that have been actually built. Bound in Art Linen with appropriate cover design.....Net 2.00

DISTINCTIVE HOMES OF MODERATE COST



—New and revised edition. The illustrations, of which there are more than three hundred, both of the exterior of houses, their garden settings, and the principal rooms inside, are all from photographs of houses already built, ranging in cost from $3,000 to $20,000. The floor plans are also given. All architectural styles are represented: Colonial, English Half-timber Stucco, Cement, Dutch Colonial (the gambrel roof type), Swiss Chalet, etc. Chapters written by authorities cover all sides of the fascinating problem of house-building, interior decoration and furnishing. The relations between the home-builder and his architect, the matter of plans, specifications, contracts, the puzzling problem of extras and how to avoid them—all these subjects are clarified in a most comprehensive and interesting way. 4to. The Mary Frances Books

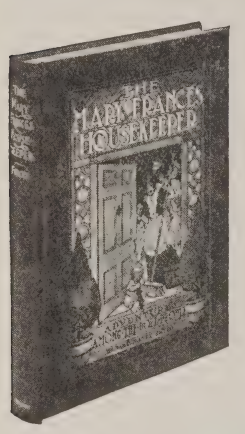
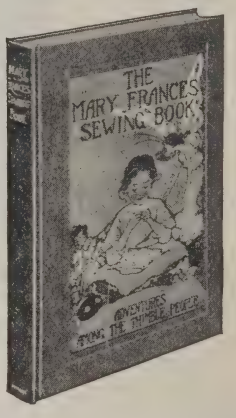
For Teaching Useful Things in an Entertaining Way



By Jane Eayre Fryer

These are not mere story books to be read through and cast aside. They are instruction books in story form which the youthful readers joyfully study because they think it is play. But in this play they learn principles of usefulness which fascinate because of the manner in which these principles are presented.



THE MARY FRANCES GARDEN BOOK, or Adventures Among the Garden People. The spirit of comradeship and of loving understanding of little men and women thoroughly permeates this unique garden book. The enchantment of the story of Mary Frances' gardens successfully carries the play-lesson idea, as the most potent method of creating a love for work and learning, into a realm undreamed of before. The little reader's delight is heightened by cut-out gardens which are inserted in the book. These cut-out gardens are beautifully colored to show the natural color of the flowers, insects, etc. They include a playhouse, April and May garden, June and July garden, August and September garden, vegetable garden, etc., and will not only familiarize the child with the plants and their seasons of bloom, but also inspire a love for practical outdoor gardening. The world was begun in a garden, and the story of reproduction is given in a most reserved and skilful manner as the great plan for the perpetuation of life. Size, 7¼ x 9½ inches. Illustrations on every page, with colored cut-out gardens. Cloth, with colored inlay on front. Net $1.50

THE MARY FRANCES HOUSEKEEPER, or Adventures Among the Doll People. A glimpse into this book is enough to make a girl's heart leap. Here she finds not only the story of the Paper Doll Family of Sandpile Village, and how they acquired a home, but also the paper dolls themselves—thirty-six large sheets of dolls and of the new, patented kind of cut-out furniture. The practical explanations of household duties and management are woven in so skilfully that as the story tells how Mary Frances learned to dust, or sweep, or make beds, the little reader takes it all in eagerly as part of the story. 250 pages. 7¼ x 9½ inches. Illustrations on every page. Cloth, with colored inlay on front.....Net $1.50

THE MARY FRANCES SEWING BOOK, or Adventures Among the Thimble People. It tells, in as quaint and delightful a story as ever appealed to a child's imagination, how the fairy "Thimble People" teach Mary Frances to sew. It teaches the reader how to sew—how to make every variety of garment—how to make the various stitches—how to use patterns—how to fold and cut the material—how to piece it together. The book includes a complete set of patterns for doll clothes—undergarments—street clothes—coats—hats—even a wedding dress. 300 colored illustrations. 320 pages. 7¼ x 9½ inches. Cloth, with colored inlay on front.....Net $1.50

THE MARY FRANCES COOK BOOK, or Adventures Among the Kitchen People. This winsome book so happily combines fact and fancy that any girl who reads it will all unconsciously absorb the principles of cookery while devouring the most fascinating sort of story. It throws a glamor around the processes of baking and boiling and leads girls into pleasant habits of usefulness and industry. The book gives recipes in the simplest, plainest words. It describes every operation clearly—just what Mary Frances did, and how she learned to avoid mistakes. The book stimulates the imagination and creates a desire to follow Mary Frances' example. Cloth, 170 pages. 7¼ x 9½ inches. Over 200 colored illustrations.....Net $1.20

The "Red Cross Girls" Series

By MARGARET VANDERCOOK

Author of "Stories About Camp Fire Girls," the "Ranch Girls" Series, etc.

While Mrs. Vandercook is widely known, both in America and abroad, for her short stories, poems and other articles contributed to magazines, and more recently as a novelist, her enviable reputation rests chiefly on her popularity as a writer of girls' books. In her latest series, the "Red Cross Girls" Series, she has excelled all her previous achievements. These stories deal with four American girls of widely different education who enlist as Red Cross nurses in the European War. Mrs. Vandercook has avoided everything of a depressing or gruesome nature in the development of these stories, yet the elements of heroism and self-sacrifice are most commendably employed in the account of the services which the girls render on and near the great battle-field. More than that, the lighter and romantic aspects of these stories will endear them to a host of readers. The books are alive with plot and action. Handsomely bound in cloth. Fully illustrated. Attractive cover design. 12mo.

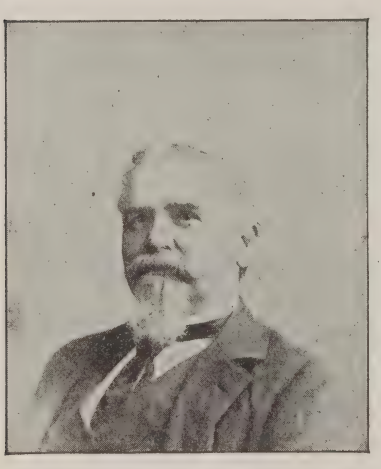
THE RENOWNED "DEERFOOT" SERIES

And over Eighty other Popular Books for Boys and Girls described on the following pages.



EDWARD S. ELLIS
Author of many Popular Books for Boys and Girls, described on the following pages

No one understands boy nature better than Edward S. Ellis, of whom it has been said that he will be a boy if he lives to be a hundred years old.

Mr. Ellis began writing at an early age and his work was acceptable from the first. After a successful career as teacher, principal, trustee and superintendent of schools, he gave his entire attention to literature, and for his literary attainments the degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon him by Princeton College.

The high moral character, the clean manly tendencies, and the admirable literary style of Mr. Ellis's stories have made him as popular on the other side of the Atlantic as in his own country. Critics uniformly agree that no parent need hesitate to place in the hands of his boy or girl any book written by Mr. Ellis. This cannot be said of the works of many of the present day authors of juvenile literature. As may well be believed, his books are in wide demand by young readers and do much good by their sound wholesome lessons, which render them as acceptable to parents as to their children. All of Mr. Ellis's books are re-issued in London, and many have been translated into other languages.

A Notable and Timely Ellis Series for Boys

The "Alamo" Series

By EDWARD S. ELLIS

For the subject of his latest, and in many respects his best, series of boys' books, Mr. Ellis has taken the picturesque and thrilling incidents that marked the struggle of Texas for independence from Mexican misrule in the days preceding the admission of the "Lone Star" State to the Union. The books in this new series are especially timely in view of the present importance of Mexican subjects, and while they have a real and permanent value, they possess all the interest and glamor for boys which may be found in other juvenile books with a less worthy foundation.

The Famous Jack Hazard Series

BY J. T. TROWBRIDGE

Of the whole series it may be said that they are almost unrivaled of their class. They are faithful studies of character and life; wholesome, fascinating, inspiring—books that boys love to read—and that they may read with profit.—Boston Advertiser.

JOHN BURROUGHS THE EMINENT NATURALIST, WRITES OF THESE BOOKS IN SCRIBNER'S AS FOLLOWS:

"The Jack Hazard Series of stories is no doubt destined to hold a high place in this class of literature. The delight of the boys in them (and of their seniors, too) is well founded. They go to the right spot every time. Trowbridge knows the heart of a boy like a book, and the heart of a man too, and he has laid them both open in these books in a most successful manner. Apart from the qualities that render the series so attractive to all young readers, they have great value on account of their portraitures of American country life and character. The drawing is wonderfully accurate, and as spirited as it is true. The constable, Sellick, is an original character, and as minor figures where will we find anything better than Miss Wansey and P. Pipkin, Esq. The picture of Mr. Dink's school, too, is capital, and where else in fiction is there a better nickname than that the boys gave to poor little Stephen Treadwell, 'Step Hen,' as he himself pronounced his name in an unfortunate moment when he saw it in print for the first time in his lesson in school. On the whole these books are very satisfactory, and afford the critical reader the rare pleasure of the works that are just adequate, that easily fulfil themselves and accomplish all they set out to do."

		JACK HAZARD SERIES. By J. T. Trowbridge. 6 vols.....	$7 50
		Jack Hazard and his Fortunes—The scene is laid upon the line of the Erie Canal and opens with Jack as a poor, ill-treated, profane little rascal of a canal-driver. It closes with Jack surrounded by friends, in a good home, with golden opportunities for the future. It is a book for boys, who will get a wholesome lesson while they follow the fortunes of Jack and his dog, Lion, with absorbing interest.—Portland Transcript.
		A Chance for Himself—The whole story breathes of the country in which its scenes are laid; and in its course, which nowhere passes the modesty of nature, there are marks of such honest study and thorough knowledge of farm life and farm folk, such delicate and true touches in the high motives of the plot, that one is not only entertained by this tale for boys, one is charmed and delightfully surprised.—W. D. Howells in Atlantic Monthly.
		Doing his Best—Mr. Trowbridge, who has written some of the best of our juvenile literature, contributes another volume of the story of the life of Jack Hazard, who is already well known to most of our young readers. The present volume takes him along through his school-days, coon-hunting, sugar-camping, boy-business on the farm to raise extra pocket-money, and so forth—a very eventful time of life for Jack.—Ohio State Journal.
		Fast Friends—As a story for boys, this ought to be ranked among the best. It deals in a fresh and captivating manner with a line of experience not by any means unfamiliar to readers of this class of books. Two boys set out for New York city—the one to find some trace of his relatives, from whom he was stolen when an infant; the other to make his fortune as a poet. The history of their adventures ends pleasantly, yet it will not foster any vain ambition.—The Churchman, Hartford.
		The Young Surveyor—Mr. Trowbridge never wrote a more captivating work, and he will never write a better. He won't do it because he can't. It is one of the very best stories we ever read.—Providence Press.
		Lawrence's Adventures among the Ice-Cutters, Glass-Makers, Coal-Miners, Iron-Men and Ship-Builders—A very successful attempt to convey instruction in several of the practical arts in a pleasing guise. The conceit is a pleasing one and very delightfully employed. Here is a book full of interesting situations and descriptions, and calculated to stimulate a curiosity that exists in almost every healthfully constituted boy, and to lead him to a love of the more practical pursuits—a thing to be encouraged in this day when the tendency is to rush into the professional and delicate arts of the desk and counter. Our boys should by all means have access to this good book.—Sunday-School Times.

Cut-Out Books of Famous Children's Stories

TOLD IN POETRY AND PROSE. ILLUSTRATED WITH ORIGINAL COLORED CUT-OUTS

Designed by HELEN PETTES and JULIA GREENE.

This unique series provides in a new and doubly attractive form those stories of childhood which though generations or even centuries old, are always as new as the day they first took form. These stories are related in both poetry and prose and are made attractive in a new way by the fact that they are illustrated with colored cut-out figures and furniture which enable the delighted little readers to reconstruct the stories and act them over and over in all possible variations to their hearts' content. In "Goldilocks and the Three Bears," for example, the cut-outs, printed on heavy, coated paper, include the four characters, with their clothing, and the chairs, beds and porridge bowls which are so real a part of the immortal story. These cut-outs are drawn in a spirit of sympathy and verity, with a real appreciation of childish imagination, and are beautifully colored. Without doubt these books will instantly take their place anywhere among the most attractive and popular of all books designed for little folks. Size, 11 x 8 inches. Bound in cloth, with inlaid front cover printed in colors.

SPECIMEN OF TYPE

The saints' resurrection. 1 CORINTHIANS. 16. The manner of it.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.
26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.
28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.
29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?
30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?
31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.
32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink: for to-morrow we die.
33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.
34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.
35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?
36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die.
37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:
38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.
39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.
40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.
41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.
42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:
43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:
44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.
45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.
46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.
47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.
48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.
49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.
51 Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,
52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.
55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?
56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.
57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16.

1 How to proceed for the relief of the brethren.
13 Admonitions, 19 and salutations.

NOW concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.
2 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.
3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.
4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.
5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.
6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.
7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.
8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.
9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.
10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.
11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.
12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desire him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.
13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS:

Solomon's adversaries. — I KINGS, 11.

Mō'ab, in the hill that is before Je-ru'sa-lĕm; and for Mō'lech, the abomination of the children of Am'mon.

8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense, and sacrificed unto their gods.

9 And the LORD was angry with Sŏl'o-mon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Is'ra-el, which had appeared unto him twice,

10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Sŏl'o-mon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.

27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Sŏl'o-mon built Mĭl'lo, and repaired the breaches of the city of Dā'vid his father.

28 And the man Jĕr-o-bō'am was a mighty man of valour: and Sŏl'o-mon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Jō'seph.

29 And it came to pass at that time, when Jĕr-o-bō'am went out of Je-ru'sa-

An unusually full CONCORDANCE TO THE SCRIPTURES; a SUBJECT DICTIONARY, showing where each topic in the Bible is found and how used; a BIBLICAL BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY; a BIBLICAL GEOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY, giving the location of places on the Maps; a Dictionary of ARCHAIC and OBSOLETE WORDS in the English Bible; Dictionary of BIBLICAL ANTIQUITIES, CUSTOMS, MUSICAL TERMS, PLANTS, ANIMALS and PRECIOUS STONES; the PRONUNCIATION OF WORDS; the TRANSLATION OF CLASSICAL WORDS, and ENCYCLOPEDIC DESCRIPTIONS of the books of the Bible, TRANSLATIONS OF THE BIBLE, and MANY OTHER IMPORTANT SUBJECTS OF INTEREST TO ALL BIBLE STUDENTS,

All Under One Alphabetical Arrangement
Prepared in Simple Language and Printed from Bold Face Type

It is confidently believed that this Teachers' Handy Bible Encyclopedia will be found to contain more practical aid to the students and teachers than the helps found in other Teachers' Bibles. The experience of recent years has brought much additional light upon many subjects of Biblical knowledge, has shown that the plan of Bible Aids could be improved, and has also revealed a need among teachers, ministers, and Bible readers for a more popular handbook with the information written in language free from the technicalties of scholars. The work of simplifying was assigned to Rev. Jesse Lyman Hurlbut, D.D., widely known as a Biblical scholar and as a TEACHER OF TEACHERS in the Sunday-school. Some of the improvements in this work over other Bible commentaries are noteworthy. (See full description on next page.)

WHAT IS INDIA BIBLE PAPER? "A thin, soft, absorbent paper, usually of a pale buff tint, made in China and Japan, and imitated in Europe and the United States, where it is used for the first or finest impressions of engravings, called India Proofs."—Century Dictionary.

"INTERNATIONAL" India Paper is much more. It is not an imitation but an original paper made for "International" Bibles. It has superior strength and is of such marvelous opacity that the print on one side of the page cannot be seen through on the other side.

"INTERNATIONAL" India Bible paper instead of being of a light buff color, is made in the bright color so much desired by Bible readers.

The saints' resurrection. 1 CORINTHIANS, 16. The manner of it.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.
26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.
28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

51 Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,
52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

The Bible, with the Handy Bible Encyclopedia and Concordance, Bound Especially for Lawyers in Law Library Binding

SELF-PRONOUNCING TEXT

COMPLETE RED-LETTER FEATURES

Clear Print Extra Quality Paper

The Old Testament is the basis of all law, and the New Testament is the foundation of all modern principals of social justice which are closely connected with present-day legislation; yet few lawyers possess a volume of The Law in their libraries. The new "International" Law Library Bible has been prepared particularly to supply this deficiency.

It is bound in Law Library Buckram, sheep style, with leather labels, to conform with the usual appearance of a law book. It indicates by the use of red ink all the types and prophecies in the Old Testament pointing to Christ, all the references in the center column of the Old Testament referring to the words uttered by Christ, all the passages in the Old Testament quoted by Christ, and all the words of Christ in the New Testament. It contains the Handy Bible Encyclopedia and Concordance, under one alphabetical arrangement, printed in bold-face type, as described on page 28 and the following insert, with seventeen maps of the Bible lands.

The Red Letter Bible is the Bible that emphasizes Christ. The Old Testament, in types and prophecies, prefigured and foretold His coming. Christ, himself, endorsed and set His seal upon the Old Testament by continually referring to it and quoting from it. And He commanded us to "Search the Scriptures," for He said, "they testify of me." But how hard it is for the average reader to take the Bible and read it and know what refers to Christ. To such a reader the Red Letter Bible is a great help and benefit.

In the Red Letter Bible eminent scholars have carefully gone through and marked all those passages that point to Christ and all those passages that Jesus himself quoted. —THE—

EASIEST READING BIBLE

It is believed that no form in which the Scripture has ever been published makes the reading of it so attractive to both old and young, nor are any Commentaries, voluminous and extensive as they may be, to be compared with this simple system of markings and indexing, in explaining and making easy the way of Salvation.

EVERY PAGE IS HELPFUL AND LEADS TO FURTHER DISCOVERY OF THE GREATEST TRUTHS IN GOD'S WORD

EXPLANATION OF MARKINGS

THE INDEX, OR KEY directs the reader to the first verse in the Bible on a subject, and, at the close of the first verse on that subject, there is a reference to the next verse on the same subject; so, that (though it may be fifty or one hundred pages away), the reader turns forward rapidly verse to verse, in regular order, until he reads everything in the whole Bible on that subject. Then he turns back, to the index or key, at the beginning, and takes up the next subject in the general plan of Salvation, with the first versei n the Bible on that subject, and reads straight through as before. And, so, one continues until the seventeen subjects, which complete the whole theme of Salvation, shall have been read through. This arrangement will enable anyone to conduct a Bible Reading on any of the following at a moment's notice.

A	All unsaved people are sinners	Gen. 6. 5
B	The Bible God's message of life and salvation	Exod. 24. 4-7

D	Christ Died to save sinners	Gen. 3. 15

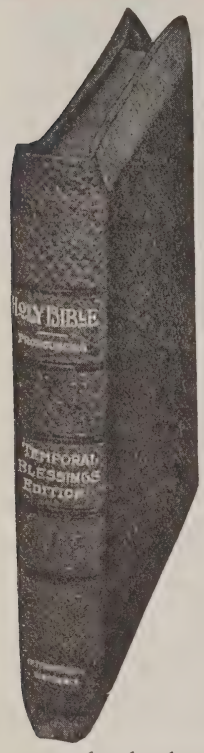
TEMPORAL BLESSINGS BIBLE



Being the Authorized Version of the Scriptures marked by the Best System of Bible Marking on all Subjects connected with the theme of TEMPORAL BLESSINGS

By J. G. LAWSON

Author of Best Methods of Bible Marking

In these days there is an ever-increasing interest in the subject of the Lord's care for His children in temporal things. All of the most spiritually-minded saints, both in Bible times and all down through the centuries of the Christian era, have found much of their joy and blessing through trusting the Lord day by day to direct them, with regard to temporal things as well as spiritual. It is a great joy for a person to have the assurance that his sins are forgiven; but it is the very joy of heaven to feel that God is caring for you and directing you day by day in all the affairs of this life, and that He will supply all your temporal needs as well as your spiritual needs. To thus realize the continuous presence and power of God is indeed the "Christian's Secret of a Happy Life." Christians do not know "the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ" (Romans 15:29), nor find "their heaven on earth begun," until they are brought to see that God cares for them in everything, and are thus led to cast all their care upon Him.

SUBJECTS ON THE THEME OF TEMPORAL BLESSINGS MARKED IN THIS BIBLE

A.	ALL THINGS working for God	Gen. 14. 19. Matt. 6. 33.
B.	The Lord's BLESSING on Fields and Flocks	Gen. 13. 2. 2 Cor. 9. 10.
C.	CLOTHING provided for God's Children	Gen. 3. 21. Matt. 6. 25-34.
D.	Some reasons why DISEASES are allowed	Gen. 12. 17. Matt. 12. 38, 39.
E.	EXAMPLES of Healing for the Body	Gen. 5. 5. Matt. 4. 23-25.
F.	FOOD provided for the Lord's Children	Gen. 1. 29. Matt. 4. 2-4.
H.	HEALTH and HEALING Promised	Gen. 15. 15. Matt. 8. 17.
J.	JOY and Trust in Times of Trial	Neh. 8. 10. Matt. 5. 11, 12.
L.	The Lord's LOVE and care for His Children	Gen. 6. 7, 8. Matt. 2. 12-14.
P.	PROSPERITY in Business and Finance	Gen. 13. 2. Matt. 6. 31-34.

S.	SAFETY from all Harm and Danger	Gen. 6. 18. Matt. 4. 6.
T.	Why TEMPTATIONS and TRIALS are allowed	Deut. 8. 2 Rom. 5. 3, 4.
U.	The UPRIGHT are Blessed and Prospered	Gen. 9. 1. Matt. 5. 5-12.
V.	VICTORY over Enemies and Troubles	Gen. 12. 3. Matt. 8. 23-27.
W.	WORRY and Anxiety Contrary to God's Will	Gen. 15. 1. Matt. 6. 19-34.

This Bible has been prepared for those desiring to learn the "exceeding great and precious promises" of God with regard to temporal blessings. That He is interested in all our temporal needs is shown from the fact that out of a total of 31,173 verses in the Old Testament, 2,412 verses relate to temporal blessings; and out of a total of 7,959 verses in the New Testament, 1,091 verses relate to temporal blessings. Thus one verse in nine in the Bible concerns temporal blessings. In this Bible all these great promises have been carefully sought out and marked in such a way that the reader will be able to turn rapidly from one verse or passage to another on any subject connected with the theme of TEMPORAL BLESSINGS.

EXPLANATION OF MARKINGS THE INDEX OR KEY, directs the reader to the first verse in the Old Testament and the New Testament on a subject, and, at the close of the first verse on that subject, there is a reference to the next verse on the same subject; so, that (though it may be fifty or one hundred pages away), the reader turns forward rapidly verse to verse, in regular order, until he reads everything in the whole Bible on that subject. Thus in specimen page above L stands for the Lord's Love and care for His children, and at the end of verse 8 is given the next reference in the Bible to the same subject (verses 17-18) and by referring to these verses is given the next reference. This same method is followed in the sixteen subjects, which complete the whole theme of Temporal Blessings. This arrangement will enable anyone to conduct a Bible reading on any of the subjects of Temporal Blessing at a moment's notice.

CHAPTER 2.

NOW when [a]Jē'sus was born in Bĕth'le-hĕm of Jū-dæ'ā in the days of Hĕr'od the king, behold, [1b]wise men from the east came to Jē-ru'sā-lĕm,

2 Saying, [2c]Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw his [d]star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 And when Hĕr'od the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jē-ru'sā-lĕm with him.

4 And gathering together all the [e]chief priests and [f]scribes of the people, [g]he inquired of them where the Chrīst should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bĕth'le-hĕm of Jū-dæ'ā: for thus it is written [3]by the prophet,

6 And [h]thou Bĕth'le-hĕm, land of Jū'dah,
Art in no wise least among the princes of Jū'dah:
For out of thee shall come forth a governor,
Which [i]shall be shepherd of my people Ĭs'ra-el.

7 Then Hĕr'od privily called the [1]wise men, and learned of them carefully [4]what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bĕth'le-hĕm, and said, Go and search out carefully concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him.

9 And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 And when they saw the star, they [j]rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mā'rў his mother; and they fell down and [k]worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, [l]gold and frankincense and [m]myrrh.

12 And being warned of God [n]in a dream that they should not return to Hĕr'od, they departed into their own country another way.

13 ¶Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth to Jō'sĕph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Ē'gў̆pt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Hĕr'od will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Ē'gў̆pt;

15 And was there until the death of Hĕr'od: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, [o]Out of Ē'gў̆pt did I call my son.

16 Then Hĕr'od, when he saw that he was mocked of the [1]wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bĕth'le-hĕm, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had carefully learned of the [1]wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken [3]by [p]Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet, saying,

18 A voice was heard in Rā'mah,
Weeping and great mourning,
Rā'chel weeping for her children;
And she would not be comforted,
because they are not.

19 ¶But when Hĕr'od was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Jō'sĕph in Ē'gў̆pt,

20 Saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Ĭs'ra-el: for they are dead that sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Ĭs'ra-el.

22 But when he heard that Ăr-chĕ-lā'us was reigning over Jū-dæ'ā in the room of his father Hĕr'od, he was afraid to go thither; and being warned of God in a dream, he withdrew [q]into the parts of Găl'ĭ-lee,

23 And came and dwelt in a city called [r]Năz'a-rĕth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken [3]by the prophets, that he should be called a [s]Năz'a-rēne.

CHAPTER 3.

AND [a]in those days cometh Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst, [b]preaching in the wilderness of Jū-dæ'ā,

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.
2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?
3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.
4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.
7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

Jesus teaches at Nazareth, and is rejected there.

53 AND it came to pass that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said: Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary; and his brethren, James and Joses and Simon and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them: A prophet is not without honour save in his own country and in his own house.

58 And he did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER XIV

Herod's perplexity respecting Jesus —(3) The martyrdom of John the Baptist.

AT that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus;

2 And he said unto his servants: This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.

3 For Herod had laid hold on John and bound him, and put him in prison, for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife;

4 For John said unto him: It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said: Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.[1]

9 And the king was sorry; nevertheless, for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel; and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came and took up the body, and buried it; and went and told Jesus.

Jesus retires with His disciples to a desert place, but the multitude follow Him. (14) He heals the sick, (15) miraculously feeds the people; (22) sends His disciples back across the lake, and (25) comes to them walking on the water.

13 WHEN Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into

The specimen page reproduced here shows the Bold-Face type in which this Testament is printed. This type is large, clear and restful to the eye—making this the easiest reading Testament to be found anywhere. These pages also show the foot-notes (printed right on the pages with the corresponding text) and the interpolated explanations which divide the Gospel into logical coherent sections without disturbing the old, but arbitrary, division into chapters and verses. These foot-notes and interpolations clear up obscure points in the text without the inconvenience and time-consuming task of referring to a commentary. Through the employment of this very latest development of modern Bible-making, this Self-Interpreting Testament takes its place as the most understandable New Testament yet published.

24 Then Jō'ṣeph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JĒ'ṢUS.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Wise men enquire after Christ. 13 Joseph fleeth into Egypt. 16 Herod slayeth the children: 19 Christ brought out of Egypt.

NOW when Jē'ṣus was born in Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm of Jū-dæ'a in the days of Hĕr'od the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Hĕr'od the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Chrīst should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm of Jū-dæ'a: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, in the land of Jū'da, art not the least among the princes of Jū'da: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Is'ra-el.

7 Then Hĕr'od, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mā'rў his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Hĕr'od, they departed into their own country another way.

13 ¶ And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Jō'ṣeph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Ē'ġўpt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Hĕr'od will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Ē'ġўpt:

15 And was there until the death of Hĕr'od: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Ē'ġўpt have I called my son.

16 ¶ Then Hĕr'od, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jĕr'e-mў the prophet, saying,

18 In Rā'mà was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rā'chel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Hĕr'od was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Jō'ṣeph in Ē'ġўpt,

20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Is'ra-el: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

The above is a sample page from the Precious Promise Testament showing how all the precious promises are printed over with red mapping ink, to enable anyone to turn to them. Marked in this way they will make a deeper impression upon the mind of the reader, and his faith will be greatly strengthened through the promises of God. The above is a specimen page from the Complete Index to the Precious Promise Testament. This index occupies 82 pages at the back of the Testament. It is a complete index to every important subject and word in the New Testament; and is more helpful than any set of references. It will enable any one to find verses on any subject, or to find any verse in the New Testament. This index makes the Precious Promise Testament the most helpful Testament yet published.

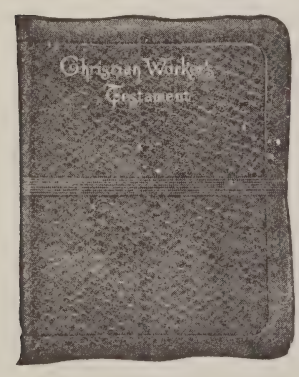
THE TESTAMENT MADE EASY TO READ

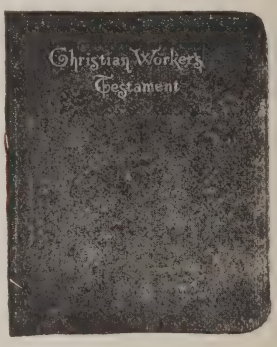
In the plan of this Testament Salvation is recognized as the dominant theme in the New Testament. Undoubtedly the greatest benefit in the reading of the Testament comes to the one who searches the Scriptures for himself and finds this stream of salvation running through its pages. But it is evident that the majority of people, even Bible readers and Bible-lovers have neither the time for such deep study nor the peculiar ability which it requires. People in general who would best understand their Bibles must depend upon those who have made a special study of these subjects and must receive the result of their labors. We cannot all be close students, but we can all be diligent readers of the Word of God.

Helpful to Every Class of Scripture Readers

Many methods have been devised for guiding Bible readers and of helping them to become Bible students, but the most ingenious and most helpful of these methods is that presented in this edition of the Testament.

Every class of Scripture students will find enjoyment and benefit in this system of marking. Ministers can use it to advantage. It will enable Lay Workers to interest and impress a company of listeners. The Sunday School Teacher will find it helpful. To the Y. M. C. A. Worker this is a marked Testament of which the key always hangs at the door. If anyone is inquiring the way of salvation what better plan can be suggested than to put this volume in his hands with the recommendation to read from it the texts on that topic which he most needs for his guidance.





In Handsome and Convenient Form

The Christian Worker's Testament is carefully printed from new type-set plates in red and black inks on extra quality of bright, rag Bible paper and is issued in a convenient size $3\frac{3}{4}$ x 4 inches.

For specimen of type and explanation of markings and exact size of Testament, see the following page.

EXPLANATION

This Testament is marked in red on every subject connected with the theme of Salvation.

A reference to the first verse on each subject is printed after the subject in this index (see above). After every verse or passage marked in this Testament there is a reference to the next verse or passage on the same subject. This will enable any one to give a Bible reading, at a moment's notice, on any subject marked in the Testament.

The capital letters used in this index, and on the margin of verses, and in front of the references, are to indicate the subjects; thus F stands for Faith, R for Repentance, etc., (see above).

Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:
26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?
27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.
28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.
29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

34 Jĕ'sus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.
35 Pē'tĕr said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.
36 ¶ Then cometh Jĕ'sus with them unto a place called Gĕth-sĕm'a-nē, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

Angel of the Downs, The.

White enameled stiff paper cover, .40; by mail .45; very handsome cloth binding, .60; by mail .67.

The book is for children, and is dedicated "To All the Holy Guardian Angels, especially my own, forgotten often but forgetful never." This sweetly expresses that it is a story of Guardian Angels, but particularly of how one protected "Nelly and Marjory"—a true incident. The story is wholesome and interesting, and incidentally emphasizes the Church's teaching regarding protecting care of our Angel guardians. Either edition will make a very pretty gift book.

The Rider Press

As printers of the Trade List Annual, as well as the Publishers' Weekly, Library Journal, and other publications of the R. R. Bowker Co., with which we are affiliated, we are experts in bibliographical composition and are especially equipped to do catalog work.

The average printer looks askance at book catalogs, with the finicky composition and extra-accurate proof-reading they necessitate. Because this sort of work is an every-day matter with us, we can keep our charges moderate where the average printer has to ask "two prices" to come out even.

Why not let us estimate on your catalog or on one of your novels—especially those with long press runs.
